

Colorado Archives and Research Support Libraries/Archives

Note: Many Colorado library systems have access to subscription services (i.e. New York Times archives, JSTOR, Project Muse, etc.) that students can use for FREE with their library account.

Arapahoe Library District: You can schedule a 30-minute appointment with a librarian to help with research. Appointments are provided free of charge and are available in English, Spanish, and Russian. <http://arapahoelibraries.org/book-a-librarian>

Auraria Library: Library of the University of Colorado Denver, Metropolitan State University, and Community College of Denver. It houses the Center for Colorado and the West. <https://coloradowest.auraria.edu/>

Boulder Public Library

Colorado Historic Newspapers: Provides online access to historic newspapers from across the state from 1859 – 1923.

Colorado State Archives: The website hosts some digital collections of Colorado documents, photographs and other useful links.

Denver Public Library: The Central Library is a friend of History Day and has numerous resources and collections for primary and secondary source research. You can also browse their online Western History collection and archive. <http://digital.denverlibrary.org/>

Douglas County Public Library

Jefferson County Public Library

Norlin Library: The library of the University of Colorado Boulder and home to the American Music Research Center, an Art and Architecture Collection, and an East Asian Collection. The institution hosts the University of Colorado Digital Library

Pikes Peak Library District

Prospector: A catalogue of Colorado and Wyoming libraries that allows patrons access to over 30 million books, journals, DVDs, CDs, videos and other materials. Students may request for materials to be sent to their home library.

Stephan J. Hart Library and Archive: Located at the History Colorado Center in downtown Denver. It houses digital and on site resources. Librarians are available to help with your research. <http://www.historycolorado.org/researchers/planning-your-visit>

Telecommunications History Group

Tutt Library: The library of Colorado College

Museums/Cultural Institutions/Archives

Aurora History Museum: Some collections items and photographs are available online, but access to archives and newspapers is only available by appointment. Call 303-739-6667 or email icronk@auroragov.org to set up a research time.

Bessemer Historical Society and Museum: Provides information on Colorado Fuel and Iron Company (CF&I).

Boulder History Museum

Buffalo Bill Museum and Grave Site: Located in Golden, this museum has an archive and helpful staff to assist in research needs related to William “Buffalo Bill” Cody.

The CELL: The Counterterrorism Education Learning Lab (CELL) is dedicated to preventing terrorism through education, empowerment and engagement.

Denver Firefighters Museum

History Colorado: Offers online exhibits supporting the content of the museum: Bent's Fort, Amache, and Tribal Paths. <http://www.historycolorado.org/educators/online-exhibits-digital-badges>

Mizel Museum

Molly Brown House: Local resource for all things related to Margaret Brown. Students can work with staff for projects.

Documentaries

PBS: This link is to the PBS website. Don't forget about viewing professional; documentaries as secondary sources: <http://www.pbs.org/wgbh/americanexperience/>

Rocky Mountain PBS: Colorado Experience <http://video.rmpbs.org/program/colorado-experience/>